

UNIVERSITY OF BIRMINGHAM | Conferences & events

New Directions in Sex Offender Practice

Two Day Conference

4th & 5th April 2022

Forensic Psychology Practice Ltd present our 11th annual international interdisciplinary conference on what works and best practices when working with persons convicted of sexual offences, bringing together practice, policy and research.

Keynote Speakers:

Dr Ida Dickie, Spalding University, Kentucky, USA
Professor Franca Cortoni, University of Montreal, Canada
Professor Belinda Winder, Nottingham Trent University, UK
Dr Jackie Craissati MBE, Psychological Approaches CIC, UK
Professor David Thornton, Sand Ridge Secure Treatment Centre, Wisconsin, USA
Dr. Maggie Brennan, Dublin City University, Ireland

Breakout Sessions

Dr. Sean Hammond

New directions in implicit measurement of sexual interest

Prof. Todd Hogue & Dr Tochukwu Onwuegbusi

Using eye-related measures to assess sexual interests

Andy Watson MBE,

Geese Theatre Workshop

Dr. Rebecca Lievesley

Desistance principles and wellbeing in prevent child sexual abuse among minor-attracted persons.

Dr. Kerry Beckley

Assessing sexual recidivism in Parole Board evaluations

Dr. Shola Apena Rogers

Sexual offending on public transport

Jenny Greensmith & Andy Green

Working with therapeutically with internet offenders in criminal justice proceedings

Dr. Susan Giles

Development of the Tackling Online Grooming (TOG) Toolkit

Donald Findlater

Desistance from viewing indecent images of children - the role of the Stop It Now!

Breakout Sessions

Lawrence Jones

Working with clinically relevant in-treatment presentations in a trauma and diversity responsive way

Prof. Jane Wood

Evaluating Police Use of Polygraph Testing with Individuals Suspected/Convicted of Sexual Offences

Prof. John Taylor

Working therapeutically with people with ID who have committed sexual offences

Prof. Katarzyna Uzieblo

Professionals' understandings of and attitudes to the prevention of sexual abuse

Sharon Wareham

Victim or victimiser? Factors to consider in gender responsivity to sexual abuse assessment and intervention

Prof. Rachel Armitage

Impact of secondary victimisation of IIOC

Steve Davies

Therapeutic approaches working with persons convicted of sexual offences

Delegate fees: • Standard rate; 2-days £325, 1-day £235 • Student rate: 2-days £210, 1-day £120 (full time students only).

Fees include full access to all sessions at the conference, refreshment and lunch. Full payment must be received prior to the conference to confirm a delegate place.

Venue: University of Birmingham, Conferences & Events Centre

Accommodation: Available separately at the University Conference Park, Lucas House/Peter Scott House at: www.birmingham.ac.uk/conferences-and-events

For booking information please contact Marie at FPP Ltd on 0121 354 6784 or email mariegarbett@forensicpsychology.co.uk